UNION SQUARE PARTNERSHIP

UNION SQUARE COMMERCIAL MARKET REPORT

Union Square-14th Street is one of Manhattan's best neighborhoods to live, work, and invest in. With its diverse array of retail, food, health + wellness, and entertainment offerings, complemented by the iconic Union Square Park, the neighborhood remains the vibrant heart of New York City. To elevate and modernize public spaces across the district, Union Square Partnership is advancing USQNext: a bold vision plan delivering social and economic benefits for residents, workers, visitors, and the city as a whole.

Through USQNext, USP seeks to transform Union Square into an accessible and inclusive urban space in collaboration with local stakeholders and City and State partners. USQNext builds on the strengths and opportunities of the neighborhood highlighted in this report.

OUR COMPETITIVE EDGE

- Exemplifying a "15-minute neighborhood," Union Square offers a wealth of local amenities, including dining, shopping, culture, entertainment, and healthcare, all within walking distance or a short bike-ride.
- A true mixed-use neighborhood, Union Square's residents, office, retail, and anchor institutions help sustain a vibrant public realm, with recent visitor traffic reaching 98% of 2019 levels [see page 2].

"Business Improvement Districts in NYC have become thought leaders in public space advocacy because they understand the close connection between public realm and economic development. USP is no stranger to bold vision and innovation with their USQNext Vision plan. I look forward to working with the Partnership to make these plans come to life."

Ya-Ting Liu
NYC Chief Public Realm Officer

- Office leasing remains active, with over 450K square feet of office space leased since January 2022 across tech, finance, publishing, and other sectors [see page 3].
- Union Square is a job center with 144K+ workers across sectors. Top employers include Con Edison, Mount Sinai Downtown, NYU, and The New School [see pages 3-4].
- Union Square welcomed 126 new businesses since January 2020, which are comprised of 54% eateries, 28% retail, and 18% neighborhood services such as health and wellness, and there are 22 more opening soon [see page 4].
- USP and creative partners work year-round to bring unique cultural, food, and art experiences to the square. Events like the eight-week Summer in the Square series, Urbanspace's Holiday Market, and seasonal pop-ups draw foot traffic and support local business and arts communities [see page 6].

OUR RICH COMMERCIAL MIX

Union Square-14th Street is home to high-profile institutions and headquarters across a range of sectors including technology, media, finance, and design. This rich mix of commercial tenants continues to be a major draw. Additionally, Union Square is center of gravity for live entertainment, arts, and culture. According to the data platform Replica, spending on entertainment doubled between 2019 and 2023, and visits in the district rose by 10% between 2022 and 2023, reaching a high of 98% compared to 2019 this month, a 10% higher average than Midtown Manhattan.

"Industry leaders like Microsoft, Sequoia Capital, and Wellington Management are choosing Union Square for their newest offices. Coupled with strong leasing activity at the ground floor, these new tenancies demonstrate the area's appeal across sectors. National retailers including Parachute, Crate & Barrel and Target are joining local favorites ABC Carpet, Fishs Eddy and Design Within Reach to solidify Union Square as a retail destination for interior design and home essentials."

USQ THRIVES AS A JOB CENTER

Union Square continues to attract top firms and talent, with over 450K square feet of commercial office space leased since January 2022 across the tech, finance, and health sectors. In the coming year, the addition of national brands, and new and renovated hotels in the area will bring additional retail and hospitality job opportunities.

- This summer, Microsoft moved into its new 150K SF office space at 122 Fifth Avenue. The building's ground floor is nearly fully leased with prominent brands Allbirds, Parachute, and Pandora. Levain Bakery is planning to open in early 2024.
- Zero Irving [124 East 14th Street] has made headlines for leasing nearly 100% of its office space to major tech and finance firms including GameChanger [25K SF] and Sequoia Capital [13K SF]. Additionally, the 10K SF Urbanspace food hall introduced 13 vendors to the 14th Street food scene.
- Over 65K SF of retail space has been leased since January 2022 to national brands, including Petco's 30K SF flagship location on Union Square East and NYC favorites such as Hex & Co boardgame cafe, Sweet Chick, and KazuNori.
- FÖRENA, a 50-unit luxury condominium development at 540 Sixth Avenue featuring 6K SF of new retail space for lease, finished construction in July 2023.
- NYU is relocating the Wagner Graduate School of Public Service to 105 East 17th Street in Fall 2024, bringing over 860 students and over 200 faculty to Union Square.
- Target will open a 33K SF store at 10 Union Square East, establishing over 75 new jobs and creating a retail anchor and local amenity for 14th Street.

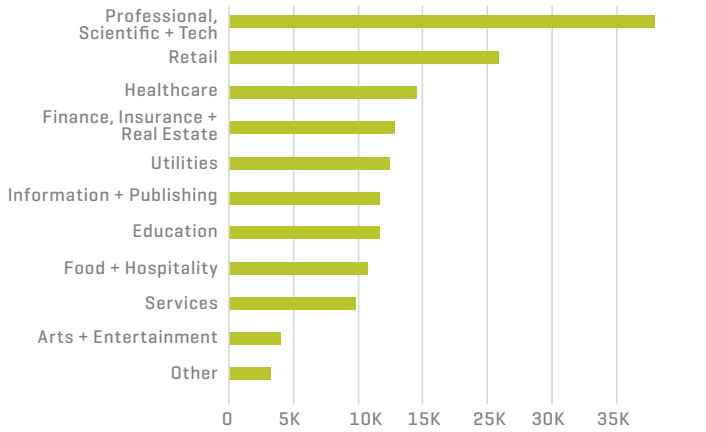

Zero Irving's 10K SF ground floor food hall, operated by Urbanspace, includes 13 vendors across a mix of cuisines, 25% of which represent first-time entrepreneurs or start-up companies. In February 2023, the food hall was featured in PureWow's "11 Union Square Restaurants Every New Yorker Should Try."

"Because we're located in the heart of the NYC tech community, Civic Hall @ Union Square's six floors of state-of-the-art training and conference center space at the new Zero Irving building will drive sustainable pathways to high-tech jobs. Civic Hall will help supply the tech workforce and spur innovation for industry leaders, the community, the City of New York, and beyond."

NEW + COMING SOON

Since the start of the pandemic, 126 ground floor businesses opened in Union Square, including a mix of eateries, retailers, health + wellness, beauty, entertainment, and professional services. Looking ahead, we are excited to welcome 22 additional businesses, including Upright Citizens Brigade, Crate & Barrel, Saatva, Mission Ceviche, and Target. The map below features openings since August 2022 to check out in the area.

“We chose to open our sixth Sweet Chick location in Union Square to be part of the incredible community of students, office workers, and regulars. Since launching our 16th Street location in 2022, we have had positive sales and have been able to strengthen ties within the neighborhood. USQ represents a new era for us filled with innovation, engagement, and continued growth.”

John Seymour
Founder, Sweet Chick

Family-owned and operated Ariston Flowers returned to the neighborhood at 78 Fifth Avenue as a dual flower shop and modern cafe concept.

DISTRICT SNAPSHOT

- Union Square has over 72,000 residents, 144,000 workers, and 60,000 students who contribute to the district's vibrant, 24/7 streetlife and provide a strong customer base for local retailers.
- Union Square has 1.3x the population density and 2x the job density of an average Manhattan neighborhood. This high concentration of residents and workers has helped sustained Union Square's 98% visitor traffic post-pandemic.
- Union Square is one of NYC's largest transit hubs with 10 subway lines, over 10 bus lines, the PATH, and 15 Citi Bike stations.

- 14th Street-Union Square is consistently the fourth busiest station in NYC. According to MTA, ridership recovered to 73% of pre-pandemic levels in April 2023.
- Bike use is on the rise in Union Square with a 150% increase between 2021 and 2022. Ridership was boosted by the three Citi Bike stations surrounding the Square, all of which are in the top 15 stations in the system.

SUPPORTING NEIGHBORHOOD ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Along with Union Square Partnership's core services to provide a clean, safe, and welcoming district for all who live, work, and visit, our team prioritizes economic development initiatives to attract investment and ensure that our businesses can operate successfully and thrive. USP works closely with local businesses, real estate partners, City agencies, and industry leaders to advocate for policies and programs that support business growth and local development.

Through our ambitious USQNext Vision Plan, we are advocating for streetscape and public realm improvements to further strengthen the connection between public space and economic vitality. This year, USP rolled out a host of programs and amenities for residents, employees, and visitors to enjoy, including new seating areas, refreshed landscaping, and the annual 14th Street busway mural. This work, alongside USP's quality of life initiatives, increases greenery, prioritizes the pedestrian experience, and draws foot traffic to support a vibrant, inclusive, and lively neighborhood.

Our list "USP in Action" highlights our work in this area, and invites our partners to join us in our efforts.

"We are happy to embrace the Union Square neighborhood once again with our new location at 78 Fifth Avenue. Our first year back has been a journey of success, growth, and community. Together, with the support of the Union Square Partnership, our business has bloomed in the heart of this vibrant neighborhood, building relationships and creating long-lasting memories with our customers."
